

NetMAR

Network for Medieval Arts & Rituals

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No. 951875.

1ST EXCHANGE VISIT PLAN

15-17 September 2021, University of Southern Denmark (SDU)

Wednesday 15 September

Location: Odense city centre, Convent of Noble Maidens

9:30 – 10:30	NetMAR partners meeting
10:30 – 10:45	Welcome to new participants
10:45 – 12:30	Lectures on clusters (Structures, Experiences, Influences): <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Rosa Rodriguez Porto: “Representing kingship: On the role of images for the understanding of medieval coronation ceremonies” (online)</li><li>• Christian Troelsgård (University of Copenhagen): “Monumenta Musicae Byzantinae and the music of the Byzantine cathedral rite: Transmission, reception and reconstruction”</li></ul>
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch in city centre
14:00 – 15:30	City walk
15:30 – 17:00	Møntergården Museum & guided tour of Medieval Odense with Mads Thagård Runge (Odense City Museum)
19:00/19:30	Common dinner with all participants

Thursday 16 September

Location: SDU campus, CML mødelokale & Library forskerlæsesal (14:00-15:00)

10:00 – 12:30	Reading group with introduction by Nils Holger Petersen Text: Jan Assmann, Religion and Cultural Memory
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 15:00	Library projects with Jakob Povl Holck (research librarian): <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Medieval Manuscript Fragments</li><li>• Infrastructure for multi- and hyperspectral image acquisition</li></ul>
15:00 – 17:00	Seminar on dissemination: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Journal (DOA journals)</li><li>• Blog (CML) &amp; podcast with Thomas Heebøll-Holm (CML associate professor and host &amp; editor of Danish podcast Mægtige Middelalder [Mighty Middle Ages])</li><li>• Prioritising electronic resources - the perspective of the university library (by Kamilla Jensen Husen, research librarian)</li></ul>

NetMAR

Network for Medieval Arts & Rituals

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No. 951875.

Friday 17 September

Location: Odense city centre, Convent of Noble Maidens

9:00 – 10:00                      Walk and talk (in pairs crossing the three nodes)
10:00 – 11:30                      Presentations from the walk and talk